

Kathmandu, Oct 24th 1834 20

I have the honor to inform you that I have just received from the British Resident at Kathmandu a letter from the British Consul at Calcutta, dated the 10th of the 10th of the month of October, in which he informs me that the British Government has decided to send a large party of troops to the assistance of the Nepalese Government, and that they will be under the command of a British Officer.
 I have the honor to inform you that I have the honor to inform you that I have just received from the British Resident at Kathmandu a letter from the British Consul at Calcutta, dated the 10th of
 the 10th of the month of October, in which he informs me that the British Government
 has decided to send a large party of
 troops to the assistance of the Nepalese
 Government, and that they will be under the command of a British Officer.

I have the honor to inform you that I have just received from the British Resident at Kathmandu a letter from the British Consul at Calcutta, dated the 10th of
 the 10th of the month of October, in which he informs me that the British Government
 has decided to send a large party of
 troops to the assistance of the Nepalese
 Government, and that they will be
 under the command of a British Officer.

[illegible]